1.4.45
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, January 27, 2006 11:45 pm.
www.unc.bz

1. My experience is inside, yea, is. How else will/would you participate in all that happened, as it happens; and time not knowing time-limits bow to time-thought. I love you.

2. Who can see the abstract not, but the reality of blood truth that is/can be seen through My blood? I love you.

3. A thief and a robber I am not. Holy righteous and meek am I, are you?
Are you to be like Me, or are you like Me?
A "wannabe" (1), or a be-er now in the now that allows truly you to be anywhere anytime.

4. See what I have said and edit not a vowel, consonant or word phrase thought erroneous/questionable.

5. I love you pen-er of My vowels, consonants; and what in the world is a thought and why do/must you limit yourself to them?
Please, you do not, must not; and why? All thought for thought sakes self-taints.

6. Empty of self-thought brings forth what, that in you is? Yea the mind of Christ.
There is no other.
Eradicated other slain.
Thank you.
Once and for all not, yea once and for all.

Thank you. Amen.

7. See what I have said and say and leave not, but eat a thousand times and see where you find yourself.

8. In heaven are you? And who is your bedfellow twain, yoked to, until I set free in freedom, 2 being made 1? I love you.

9. Dismissing him not verbally but taking every thought captive leaves who remaining? Me, in truth, power, and meekness. I love you.

10. Who can see the reality of transportation, at thought? Who can construct what's constructed, with voice?
Who can attend to the mighty, with two fish and a little bread?
Who is/are you, the bread of heaven?
I love you and give you Me.
We come forth, have. Amen.

11. See the mighty, fallen, slain by the sword not as you think, but yea in meekness encountering love; and who can withstand love? Me/no one. I love you.

12. Who can see the mighty, fallen, restored, to their once great Glory, God is, wisdom immaculate. I love you. Before the fall that was/is. And ever will be, not; but yea is over and over again. See. Circular what?

Footnote:
1. "Wannabe" is slang for "want to be."